Qualifications:

The ideal candidate must be trained and current in the seven core competencies outlined in the Provincial Standards to meet our minimum standards, and have experience working with people (children, adolescents or adults) who have a disability. Any post-secondary education in programs related to working in this field will be considered an asset. Some positions may require a mandatory driver who will need to utilize their personal vehicle. A valid driver's license and proof of vehicle insurance will be considered an asset. As a permanent staff person, it is our expectation that you will work a variety of shifts as required, and assume a level of responsibility regarding resident support that includes both day and night shifts.

This person must have the ability and the desire to provide a home where people will feel secure, feel good about themselves and feel accepted and valued as they are and for whom they are. He/she must be enthusiastic about developing programs, supporting people to live in the community, and exploring life with the people with whom they support.

The successful candidate must be like-minded to the principles and values of the Yarmouth Association for Community Residential Options.

She/he must have the ability to work independently and as part of a team, and must have the ability to make good judgments generally, and in times of crisis.
